

KamLAND Research Report. William Bugg. Feb 1-18, 2004

The author spent Feb 1-Feb 18 in Japan for KamLAND research. The primary duties were two weeks of shift taking for the KamLAND data acquisition system. In addition due to the recent installation of the new High Voltage system considerable attention was given to the HV monitoring system and the difficulties associated with the commissioning of the large new power supplies and distribution system.